Y.P. FELLOWSHIP

Why are there so many denominations? How did your denomination begin? Come this evening to the YPCF meeting and get the answer to your questions. The meeting will feature a panel discussion on the topic, "How Denominations Began." With Hiroshi Uyehara as chairman, five speakers will present short talks on their own denominations.

HAPPINESS HOUR

This Wednesday, after the singspiration, our study will be the tenth chapter of Acts. It is the story of Cornelius, the centurion. Come one, come all to PSH # 2 at 7:30 p.m.

• LEADERSHIP TRAINING •

The Japanese speaking division will conduct a leadership training course for six evenings beginning tomorrow at the church. The topics will deal with personal evangelism, comparative religion, and other questions. Niseis are urged to take advantage of these meetings.

CALENDAR

Monday: YP Church Board meeting at 12-8-D, 7:30 p.m.
Wednesday: Happiness Hour at PSH # 2, 7:30 p.m.
Thursday: Sunday School teachers meeting and social at Church, 7:30 p.m.

VISITORS

Private and Mrs. Arthur Takahashi, the former Esther Fukushima, were recent visitors here from Little Rock.

George Baba from Ann Arbor, Mich. was with us last Sunday at the YPCF meeting.

Gerald Kakehashi was a welcome visitor at our YPCF cabinet meeting which was held last Monday night at the home of Isami Inouye.

Shigeru Kimura returned from Chicago for a short visit. He will leave for Florida to work. He is the younger brother of Ron who is attending Chosbrough Seminary, North Chili, N.Y.

Private Shoji Ishimaru is home now from Camp Robinson. Corp. John Oki is visiting the Ishimaru family from Camp Grant, Illinois.

Would you like to correspond with someone outside other than relocatees? Requests have been pouring into the office asking for pen pals. Don't limit your letters only to fellow evacuees, but make interesting new contacts. All those interested see Masako Tabuchi, YPCF secretary.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the Bible Distributors League of Dallas, Texas for the receipt of 200 Gospels of John and Luke and some new Testaments.

We received with gratitude, donations for the Church and Sunday School from Mrs. Haru Fujimoto. She departed with her two sons last Tuesday for Chicago.

PERSONALS

Lincoln Shimidzu, choir leader, music chairman, and secretary for the local YPCA left last Friday for Chicago.

Alice Nakada and Yuriko Fujita sends greetings from Cleveland, Ohio.

Michio and Toshio Mizobe writes from Pontiac, Michigan, "This is a beautiful state of trees. The people are friendly toward us."

Helen Igo now studying in Shawnee, Oklahoma writes; "the Christian atmosphere makes you feel at home."

Jack Furukawa, who entered Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma, has been elected as a student council representative. Jack is a freshman and we are certainly proud of his achievement.

MINISTER'S MEETING

Last Monday, at the First Presbyterian Church in McGahoo, the ministerial staff of Jerome and Rehwer centers met with Dr. Gordon K. Chapman for a general conference. Also attending the conference were the three new ministers from Tulo Lake center who have joined the Jerome staff.
